

Key Transportation Corridors within the Great Lakes Region

The Great Lakes Regional Transportation Operations Coalition is working to identify Key Transportation Corridors in the Great Lakes Region. These Key Corridors will serve as a foundation for cooperative management, response, and information dissemination efforts. The two sets of routes highlighted on this map have been selected as prototypes for the development of the Key Corridor concept.

